

HEATH TECNA

Job Posting

Title: Senior Certification Engineer
Reports To: Manager of Certification
Application Deadline: Open Until Filled
Posting: Internal/External

Responsibilities: Responsible for development of Certification Plans and coordination of certification activities to ensure compliance with all regulatory requirements to obtain Supplemental Type Certificates (STC).

- Prepare and submit certification plans to the FAA Aircraft Certification Office.
 - Assure all Type Design Data is collected, filed and appropriately approved for inclusion in the final FAA STC data submittal package.
 - Coordinate certification activity with the FAA, the customer, all internal departments, external suppliers and FAA designees. .
 - Monitor schedule to meet due dates while striving to maintain budget.
 - Coordinate designee testing and off-site activities.
 - Monitor and review drawing lists and document updates
 - Request part and installation conformities through ACIP
- Other duties as assigned.

Requirements:

- Bachelors degree in applicable engineering discipline or equivalent experience required
- Minimum 8 years aircraft certification experience
- Experience in both FAA certification and conformity work
- Experienced in interfacing and coordination with the FAA ACO's.
- Experience writing documentation and specifications to FAA standards
- Ability to work within a team environment
- Proficient with Word and Excel
- Excellent oral, written, and organizational skills
- Lifting requirement: 30 lb

Equal Opportunity Employer